Short

AULDRIDGE FAMILY HISTORY

The grandfather of the Auldridge clan, whose name we do not know, was born in England and died there. He had his wife, Elizabeth Tillman Auldrige, an educated lady, had one son, William Tillman Auldrige. After her husband's death, Elizabeth and her son, ten or twelve years old, came under the indentured servant status to America. The Auldrige name has been spelled different ways: Aldridge, Oldridge.

John Johnston needed a governess to take care of his children and he paid the passage of Elizabeth and William to America. Later John and Elizabeth were married, they had no children. Elizabeth is thought to be buried in Duffield Cem. on Jerico Road, but she is also thought to be buried under a tree on Jerico Road, at any rate, her marker is in someone's woodshed on Jerico Road! Tradition has it that before Elizabeth left England, she worked in the Queen's court, Elizabeth fell in love with Mr. Auldrige and married. Because she married below her social status she was kicked out. After her husband died the only thing left to do was come to America.

In "History of Pocahontas Co. 1981" page 215, the article on the Auldrige Family states "William T. Auldrige was born about 1750, and later received a land grant in 1765". This can't be true, because in the 1850 census of Pocahontas County, William Auldrige gave his age as 79 and Mary Auldrige gave her age as 77. This would make William being born about 1771. I found where in 1790 William Auldrige received a land grant for four hundred acres on what is known as Auldrige Mountain, between Mill Point and Buckeye, West Virginia.

William T. Auldrige married 24 Dec. 1794 to Mary Cochran, minister George Guthrie. Mary was born about 1785, died 22 March 1856, daughter of Thomas Cochran, Sr. and Sarah _____. Her death is recorded at the Pocahontas County Court House, and it mentions her mother as Sarah. William and Mary lived at Bridger's Notch, near where James and John Bridger were bushwhacked by Indians in 1784. See Cochran family history.

Early in William's life he was greatly disabled by a falling tree and was seriously crippled for life; and yet the work he and his children accomplished in opening up new roads, under difficulties, is truly remarkable and worthy of special appreciation. Owing to Mr. Auldrige's disabled condition, he became a school teacher, and pursued that vocation for years, and did much good in that line.

William and Mary had nine children:

1. Sarah Auldrige - Married to William McClure, they had four children
2. Elizabeth Auldrige - Married Jacob McNeil and settled in Floyd, Va
3. James Auldrige - was a tailor and migrated to Missouri
4. Richard Auldrige - Married 28 Jan. 1836 to Hannah Smith they moved to Braxton County, WV. Richard was killed in Civil War.
5. John Auldrige - born 1809. Married 9 Aug. 1832 to Rebecca Smith, born 1819, she died in 1899, over 90 years of age.
6. William Auldrige, Jr. - born 1807 on Bridgers Mountain, died 10 Sept. 1891, age 84 of dropsy.
Married twice:
#1 - 14 Jan. 1836 to Nancy Kellison, daughter of Daniel Kellison
#2 -
7. Nancy Auldrige - Married 3 Dec. 1835 to Moore McNeil, his second marriage. (His first marriage was 5 Jan. 1832 to Martha McVair of Augusta Co. Virginia).
8. Samuel Auldrige - settled at Bridgers Notch and later on Greenbrier River near Stampin Creek finally on Auldrige Mtn.
Married twice:
#1 - 4 Sept. 1834 to Marion Barlow, daughter of John Barlow and Martha Vaddell Barlow
- 9. THOMAS AULDRIDGE, Sr. - born 1795, died 29 Oct. 1874, at Edray, age 79 years, 2 months, and 24 days.

Married 14 Feb. 1822 to ELIZABETH MORRISON born 1798 in the Hill Country (Lobelia). Died 5 July 1876 at Edray. Their deaths are recorded at the court house in Pocahontas. Their death is listed as dropsy. ELIZABETH'S parents were James Morrison and Elizabeth Jane Callison. See Morrison and Callison family history.
I believe where Thomas and Elizabeth lived is located across from Zack Johnson's home. There was a log house located across the road that was removed and put back up in Green Bank.
In "Historical Sketches" by Price, page 368, 369 it mentions THOMAS AULDRIDGE leased land that was later owned by John R. Poage near Clover Lick, where Thomas spent most of his working days. He then later bought land from Jacob Arbaugh and Captain William Young, near Indian Draft, the land was later owned by his son Thomas, Jr.

When Thomas, Sr. was in his prime, he was considered one of the strongest men physically in Vest Pocahontas County. The first revelation of his strength was at a log rolling. The champion of the day attempted to take young Auldrige's handspike--which was a fancy article of its kind. The young athlete picked up both the champion and the disputed handspike and laid them on the log heap, with apparent ease! Thomas and Elizabeth had three sons and three daughters, it is interesting to note that three of their children married three of Aaron Moore's children, #1, 3, and 6.

1. Sarah Auldridge - born 1825. Married 21 June 1855, second wife of
2. James Auldridge - born 1828, died 28 Oct. 1899, age 74 years, 6 months, 1 day, buried Indian Draft Cem.
Married twice:
#1 - 13 Sept. 1853 to Mary Ann Earlow (buried in Cochran Cem.???)
#2 - 28 Oct. 1866 to Julia A. Duncan
3. William Auldridge - born 1829, died 19 Sept. 1891,
Married 1 Jan. 1850 to Elizabeth Moore, daughter of Aaron Moore and Catherine Johnson
4. Mary Ann Auldridge - born 1832. Married 24 April 1862 to William Moore, born 1815 son of Aaron Moore and Catherine Johnson
5. Elizabeth Auldridge born Dec. 1833, died 1908,
Married 31 Jan. 1850 to Henry Moore son of Aaron Moore and Catherine Johnson. Elizabeth and Henry had only one son,
Andrew Thomas Moore. see Moore family history
6. Thomas Auldridge, Jr. - born 20 Mar. 1835, died 19 May 1912.
Married 5 July 1859 to Catherine Moore, born 4 Mar. 1837, died 10 Oct. 1920, daughter of John and Jane Moore.

Pocahontas Times, 23 Jan 1890:

IN MEMORY

Mr. Alexander Barlow departed this life at his home near Edray, W.Va., at 12 o'clock, on the night of the 13th of January, 1890, at the good old age of 82 years, 1 month and 1 day, being born Dec. 12th, 1807. He died of old age and general decline, the active cause of death being an attack of La Grippe, which was too hard for his failing strength.

In some respects he was a remarkable man, and especially in a religious point of view. For a great number of years he was a faithful and conscientious member of the M. E. Church, and always without exception, exhibited the most humble and unassuming christian character; and not only did he show by action and profession that he loved the Lord, but he was often wonderfully blessed with the Divine Presence, and his demonstrations of delight on such occasions proved their Divine character by the effect produced on others. His public prayers were made in the most simple and plain language, but were often wonderful in their effect. Eternity alone can disclose the result of the influence of his religious character, both among his friends and all his acquaintances. His prayers always seemed to be language of a child to a kind father, full of faith and confidence. He has gone to his home in the Heavens. His kindred know where to look for him. Peace to his ashes.

BARLOW FAMILY HISTORY

There were Barlow's of Slubetch created 13 July 1677 and extinct before the year 1775. This ancient family enjoyed equestrian ranks for many generations prior to its being raised to the baronetcy. They were from County of Lancaster, County Hereford and County of Pembroke. Therefore it is mentioned at the end of the lineage of a Sir George Barlow who went to France, without any children, and the administration of his effects was in 1774 or 1775.

The Barlow coat of arms found in Rielstop Armorial General, states that the surname Barlow appears to be locational in origin, and is believed to be associated with the English, meaning, "one who came from Barlow near Manchester." Various spelling variations of Barlow are: Barlowe, Barlowe and perhaps Barley. (The previous article was copied from Barlow Family History by Naden, that was in Richard Barlow's possession).

Among the worthy pioneers of our county, John Barlow, ancestor of the Barlow Connection, is very deserving of remembrance. He was the only son of Alexander Barlow, of Bath County, who was a French emigrant, and had married no English emigrant, who name was Barbary (Barbero), some think that her name could be Rousch and a sister to Alexander Voddell's wife. Alexander Barlow was living in Bath County when the Revolutionary War came on. Entering the service of the colonies he fell in battle, according to authentic tradition.

This soldier's widow married Henry Casebolt and lived at the Aldridge Place on the mountain over looking Buckeye. They had children of their own. See Casebolt family history.

John Barlow was born 28 Nov. 1781, died 23 Jan. 1866, almost 85 years old. When he reached manhood, he found employment very readily for he was honest and industrious. There will always be a pinco for such as long as there remains work to be done. Alexander Vaddell, who lived on the Moore place near Marvin, had employed John Barlow. Young Barlow and one of the daughters became attached, and were married 18 Dec. 1804, married by John Pinnell. The engagement occurred while Martha Voddell and John Barlow were getting in a supply of fire wood. It is not often that wood is chopped and hauled under such pleasingly romantic circumstances. At the time of the marriage the groom was 25 and the bride was 10.

Martha Vaddell was born 12 Jan. 1790, died 7 Oct. 1872, age 82 years.

John and Martha Barlow began house keeping at the "Briar Patch," on Buckley Mountain, known as the Pyles Property. A point that commands a very extensive view. Afterwards Mr. Barlow bought a piece of land from Thomas Brock, on Red Lick Mountain. Here he built up a home, reared a family, and spent the greater part of his married life.

July 1838 John Barlow located 35 acres of land in the forks of Stony Creek including the land that was left out of a survey he made in 1815. And is bounded by the same lines John Moore and the platd line which shuld off the same by virtue of part of a warrant for 2,000 acres.

The Barlow home on the Red Lick Mountain was constructed of hand hewn logs and stood two stories high. It is said that as the family grew and was necessary that John build a second identical home and they were connected by a dog trot (today's breezn-way). The home was situated about half way up the mountain and today the site can be reached only by travelling on foot or four wheel drive. No doubt at the time John and Martha lived there, a path led down the mountain.

It is worthy of mention that when John Barlow bought the Brock land he paid for it in venison at fifty cents a saddle or pair. Mr. Barlow estimated the number of deer killed by him at fifteen hundred. On the most lucky day of all his hunting career he killed six deer and wounded the seventh. He never kept count of the bears, panthers, wildcats, turkeys, and foxes shot by himself. The elk and buffalo were virtually exterminated before his hunting days.

John Barlow was one of the original members of the Hamlin Chapel. The construction of the church was done by the members of the church. John Barlow and John Auldridge hewed all the logs and notched and fitted the corners at the time the building was raised.

During his last days, while kept at home and out of the woods by the infirmities of age, our old friend was asked if he would like to live his life over again. He replied: "I have no wish to live my life over again, but there is one thing I would like to do, and that is to have one more good bear hunt on Red Lick Mountain."

BARLOW FAMILY HISTORY

There were Barlow's of Slubetch created 13 July 1677 and extinct before the year 1775. This ancient family enjoyed equestrian ranks for many generations prior to its being raised to the baronety. They were from County of Lancaster, County Herford and County of Penbroke. Therefore it is mentioned at the end of the lineage of a Sir George Barlow who went to France, without any children, and the administration of his effects was in 1774 or 1775.

The Barlow coat of arms found in Rielstap Armorial General, states that the surname Barlow appears to be locational in origin, and is believed to be associated with the English, meaning, "one who came from Barlow near Manchester." Various spelling variations of Barlow are: Barlove, Barlewa and perhaps Barley. (The previous article was copied from Barlow Family History by Nada, that was in Richard Barlow's possession).

Among the worthy pioneers of our county, John Barlow, ancestor of the Barlow Connection, is very deserving of remembrance. He was the only son of Alexander Barlow, of Bath County, who was a French emigrant, and had married an English emigrant, who name was Barbary (Barbara), some think that her name could be Rausch and a sister to Alexander Waddell's wife. Alexander Barlow was living in Bath County when the Revolutionary War came on. Entering the service of the colonies he fell in battle, according to authentic tradition.

This soldier's widow married Henry Casebolt and lived at the Auldrige Place on the mountain over looking Buckeye. They had children of their own. See Casebolt family history.

John Barlow was born 26 Nov. 1781, died 23 Jan. 1866, almost 85 years old. When he reached manhood, he found employment very readily for he was honest and industrious. There will always be a place for such as long as there remains work to be done. Alexander Waddell, who lived on the Moore place near Marvin, had employed John Barlow. Young Barlow and one of the daughters became attached, and were married 18 Dec. 1804, married by John Pinnell. The engagement occurred while Martha Waddell and John Barlow were getting in a supply of fire wood. It is not often that wood is chopped and hauled under such pleasingly romantic circumstances. At the time of the marriage the groom was 25 and the bride was 16.

Martha Waddell was born 12 Jan. 1790, died 7 Oct. 1872, age 82 years.

John and Martha Barlow began house keeping at the "Briar Patch," on Buckley Mountain, known as the Pyles Property. A point that commands a very extensive view. Afterwards Mr. Barlow bought a piece of land from Thomas Brock, on Red Lick Mountain. Here he built up a home, reared a family, and spent the greater part of his married life.

July 1838 John Barlow located 35 acres of land in the forks of Stony Creek including the land that was left out of a survey he made in 1815. And is bounded by the same lines Johnny Moore and the platted line which shuld off the same by virtue of part of a warrant for 2,000 acres

The Barlow home on the Red Lick Mountain was constructed of hand hevn logs and stood two stories high. It is said that as the family grew and was necessary that John build a second identical home and they were connected by a dog trot (today's breeze-way). The home was situated about half way up the mountain and today the site can be reached only by traveling on foot or four wheel drive. No doubt at the time John and Martha lived there, a path led down the mountain.

It is worthy of mention that when John Barlow bought the Brock land he paid for it in venison at fifty cents a saddle or pair. Mr. Barlow estimated the number of deer killed by him at fifteen hundred. On the most lucky day of all his hunting career he killed six deer and wounded the seventy. He never kept count of the bears, panthers, wildcats, turkeys, and foxes shot by himself. The elk and buffalo were virtually exterminated before his hunting days.

John Barlow was one of the original members of the Hamlin Chapel. The construction of the church was done by the members of the church. John Barlow and John Auldridge hewed all the logs and notched and fitted the corners at the time the building was raised.

During his last days, while kept at home and out of the woods by the infirmities of age, our old friend was asked if he would like to live his life over again. He replied: "I have no wish to live my life over again, but there is one thing I would like to do, and that is to have one more good bear hunt on Red Lick Mountain "
